

George S. Braucht; LPC, CPCS & CARES
Chief Mission Officer at Brauchtworks Consulting

Braucht is pronounced like “yacht” but start with “br” instead of “y”

Mr. Braucht is a Licensed Professional Counselor and a Certified Professional Counselor Supervisor who has over 14,000 hours of supervised psychotherapy and applied community psychology experience. His specialty is professional and peer workforce development and program continuous quality and outcome improvement consulting in behavioral health and social justice settings. In 2009 George co-founded the Certified Addiction Recovery Empowerment Specialist (CARES) Academy, a peer recovery coach training that is operational in several states. Before retiring from the State of Georgia, he created the Transitional Housing for Offender Reentry Directory and the Reentry Partnership Housing initiative. He also implemented a statewide recovery counseling program for people on parole using the Partners for Change Outcome Management System and an intensive Enhanced Supervision Program training for correctional officers and reentry staff that incorporated Effective Practices in Community Supervision. More recently he assisted in developing and delivering certification curricula for Recovery Residence Managers and on the Recovery Capital Scale. George is a Level II Certified Trainer with Better Outcomes Now and he is a Charter Board Member of the National Alliance for Recovery Residences in which he serves as Secretary and the Affiliates Committee Co-chair.
