Mr. Braucht’s 14,000+ hours of supervision, psychotherapy and applied community psychology experience focuses on professional and peer workforce development along with continuous program quality and outcome improvement. In peer services, George co-founded the Certified Addiction Recovery Empowerment Specialist (CARES)

Academy, a peer recovery coach training that is operational in several states, and the Forensic Peer Mentor Ready4Reentry 40-hour training. He has led program implementations including a statewide recovery counseling program for people on parole using the Partners for Change Outcome Management System, opened Georgia’s first five Day Reporting Centers, directed several statewide reentry initiatives, the Transitional Housing for Offender Reentry Directory and the Reentry Partnership Housing initiatives, created and facilitated an Enhanced Supervision Program training for correctional and reentry staff plus certification curricula for Recovery Residence Managers and for the Recovery Capital Scale. George is a Charter Board Member of the National Alliance for Recovery Residences and a Recovery Consultant for SAMHSA’s Opioid Response Network. Little Richard, Otis Redding, the Allman Brothers Band and George, among others, hail from Macon GA where he lives nearby with his spouse, Jane, and dog, Frodo. Music, growing plants and mythology are some of his passions.
