

George S. Braucht, LPC
(pronounced like “yacht” but start with “br” instead of “y”)

Mr. Braucht is a Licensed Professional Counselor whose experience includes psychotherapy; clinical supervision and peer performance support; along with program evaluation, research and continuous quality improvement. George enjoys teaching psychology and facilitating behavioral health and social justice trainings. His career so far includes designing and implementing an Enhanced Supervision Program training and peer coaching initiative with Georgia’s Department of Community Supervision for officers, counselors, and other community reentry service providers; a statewide Parolee Recovery and Offense Desistance outpatient counseling program and the Transitional Housing for Offender Reentry Directory with the Georgia State Board of Pardons and Paroles. In 2010 George co-founded the Certified Addiction Recovery Empowerment Specialist Academy for peer recovery coaches that operates in several states. He serves on the Board of the Georgia Association of Recovery Residences, is a Charter Board Member of the National Alliance for Recovery Residences, is a Georgia Peace Officers Standards and Training Council Senior Instructor, and he is a Certified Trainer with the Heart and Soul of Change Project whose Partners for Change Outcome Management System is listed in SAMHSA’s National Registry of Evidence-based Programs and Practices. Many tools that George developed for professional and peer service providers are available as free downloads at www.brauchtworks.com.

Email: george@brauchtworks.com; Phone: 404-301-3941; Website: www.brauchtworks.com

The endless vine: Ancient symbol of Infinity, Life, or Discoverable Possibilities in Interweaving Flows of Eternal Being and Movement Within and Without